How do I pair my BlueParrott M500-XT with my smartphone?

To pair your BlueParrott M500-XT with your smartphone, tablet, or other mobile device, follow these steps.

1. Turn on the Bluetooth setting on your mobile device.
2. Ensure your headset is powered on by pressing and holding the Multi-function button (1 second) until the LED flashes blue. “On” will be announced in the headset.
3. To enter pairing mode, double-press the Multi-function button until the LED flashes red and blue. If you are wearing the headset, “Pairing” will be announced.

The headset is now ready to pair with your mobile device.

4. Go to the Bluetooth menu on your phone and select the BlueParrott M500-XT from the list of available devices.

You will hear “Connected” when the headset and smartphone are successfully connected.
